2- - Joint ENCoRE-E.C.C.O Symposium: 'Specialisations: Trends and Challenges in Conservation-Restoration Education' (5 April, 2025)

Following the 2nd GA, this one-day symposium on 5 April 2025, and organized jointly by ENCoRE and E.C.C.O aims to bring together educators and professionals to discuss about:

1. The (need for) specialisations required by the profession today (typology, degree of specificity, areas in need of professionals, etc.).
2. How does this (potentially) impact on curricula?

The topics are structured in 3 areas:

- I. Present needs of the conservation-restoration profession in the heritage sector.
- II. Challenges within educational institutions to meet the demands of the sector.

III. Soft skills development.

Venue: Emmaus Monastery (Prague, Czech Republic)

Registration: <https://forms.gle/8ytsKeWgPzyYmqDt9>

7- WEBINAR : International Day of Women and Girls in Science (Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage)

An online studio day will be held on 11 February 2025 on the occasion of the 10th anniversary of the International Day of Women and Girls in Science (IDWGS), declared by the United Nations General Assembly in 2015.

This event aims to:

- appreciate the scientific dimension of conservation-restoration, as well as the importance of inter-institutional cooperation and interdisciplinary teamwork in the discipline.
- recognise the contribution and role that women in science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics have in the conservation of our cultural heritage, and
- encourage vocations to scientific research in the field of cultural heritage, especially among young women.

Feel free to disseminate it among your students and colleagues

The event is free of charge, but registration is required (program attached)
The time zone is Central European Time (Madrid, Paris, Berlin, Denmark).
